AN OFF-THE-SHELF SOLUTION FOR CANDIDATE JOB FIT

Report for: Jan Novák

ID: DF178402

Date: October 27, 2010

Job: Administrative and Clerical

INTRODUCTION

Different characteristics are important for success in different jobs, and characteristics that are important in one job may interfere with performance in others. The Hogan Personality Inventory (HPI) evaluates candidates on seven well-known dimensions or characteristics that influence occupational success. This report is based on the candidate's scores on these dimensions and it is organized in three sections. Section I reviews the candidate's results focusing on (a) characteristics relevant for success in most work environments; (b) suitability for the position; and (c) the style with which he will interview. Section II provides a graphic report of the candidate's assessment results. Section III summarizes the recommendation for job fit and potential hiring.

The Hogan Personality Inventory evaluates candidates on seven well-known characteristics that influence occupational success.

SECTION I - SUMMARY OF ASSESSMENT RESULTS

Employment Fit

Jan Novák seems poised, confident, and self-assured but may overestimate his abilities and ignore feedback. He is a responsible team player who attends to details, but who can also be flexible about the rules. Jan Novák appears bright, eager and quick to learn, and achievement-oriented. He may seem impatient with others who are not as smart, and may take action before others understand the issues.

Job Fit

Mr. Novák can handle heavy workloads and fast-paced environments; he is not easily stressed. Mr. Novák is not driven to achieve high status in the organization, however he may enjoy moving into a position of authority. In addition, others will find him to be sensitive, perceptive, and tactful. Although he is comfortable with standard processes, he can look beyond them to solve problems.
